At a Glance -- The NEW SAT

The major emphasis of the NEW SAT is reasoning skills in context, not in isolation.

Here are the eight key changes on the test:

- ◆ No penalty for wrong answers.
- ◆ Problems in all sections are grounded in realistic examples and in context.
- ◆ Interpreting the meaning of words in a passage (versus memorizing definitions)
- ◆ Demonstrating the ability to read and interpret information from a wide range of sources and then reflect in writing
- ◆ Essay criteria will now require reasoning, stylistic and persuasive elements.
- ◆ More advanced math questions with a greater emphasis on problem solving and analysis
- ◆ Analysis of science and in social studies
- ◆ Understanding of founding documents (i.e. Declaration of Independence) and global authors
